FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 28, 1859.

A PRESENTMENT.-The Grand Inquest for the Criminal Court of New York city have presented some of those evils which afflict all great cities, and against which the law and public sentiment should be most earnestly enlisted. The Grand Jury strongly condemn the disgraceful interference of partisan Aldermen and Judges in behalf of notorious characters under arrest for offences against the laws. They assert that in far too many cases, the evil-doer, after detection and arrest by the police, has, without justifiable cause, been discharged and permitted to go at large by these functionaries; while, in other cases, where the forms of justice have been observed, there is good reason to believe that undue lenity is shown to those whose political influence can be made serviceable. From this the Grand Jury argue that an elective criminal judiciary is a dangerous and untrustworthy institution, and recommend that the Police Justices be appointed by the Justices of the Superior Courts. Until this change is made, it is urged that the existing evil might be obviated somewhat by defining the duty of Aldermen and Police Justices, to the end that this summary interference be checked. The Grand Jury also condemn the letting of premises for brothels, gambling saloons, rum holes, and kindred purposes; and affirmed that all those who knowingly let houses to improper characters should be subject to penalty. If mere physical nuisances, such as piggeries, slaughter-houses, and kindred establishments, are to be proceeded against and abated, how much more, they argue, should those places where body and soul are wrecked, be prohibited and suppressed,-More than seven-tenths of the cost of police and pauperism can be traced to rumsellers, more pretentious gambling houses, and bropremises for such purposes ought to be held responsible for the evils which they inflict.

OUR PUBLIC ARMORIES AND FORTS .- The recent seizure of the armory at Harper's Ferry by a band of seventeen white men and five negroes and their holding, not only the public On looking into the matter, we find that there is not a regiment of regular soldiers on have two companies at Fort Hamilton to protect New York Harbor, one company at the West, two companies at Charleston, one at Key West, and eight companies of recruits at the artillery school at Fort Monroe, on the Chesapeake. Major French's battery has been ordered to establish an artillery school at Fort Clark, in Western Texas, and another has been established at a frontier point on Missouri river. We recognise the advantages to be derived from the establishment of field readily coincide in the fact that the West and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid artillery schools on our Western frontier, and must and should be protected. But we also think it right to insist that our forts and arsenals on the Atlantic scaboard shall also be kept in repair and a ready state of defence. We are now constructing on the Dry Tortugas, an immense fortification, which has already cost millions of dollars, and which, when finished, will be the Gibraltar of the Gulf of H. W. Thomas, Mexico. Yet there it stands alone in the Edward Sangster, centre of a thousand miles of unguarded coast, with not one hundred soldiers along that whole extent, no citizen soldiery to rush to its rescue, and no navy to guard it if it were | W. HEAD OFFICE FOR THE UNITED STATES, No. 37 South Third Street, Philadelphia.$6,298,800 00

SECURITY TO POLICY HOLDERS.

HIS old and responsible Company insures against loss or damage by Fire, almost every ription of property, and offers to Merchants and others desiring insurance, the security of an actual Capital of $6,298,800, for the whole of which, and for any liabilities beyond, the Shareholders are INDIVIDUALLY RESPONSIBLE, even to the extent of their entire fortunes. The Shareholders number about one thousand, and as a large portion of these are persons of great wealth, the most ample provisions exist for meeting every possible claim against the Company. SUBJECT TO THE LAWS OF THE UNITED

In appointing an Agent for the United States, the Company has empowered him "to appear to and accept any action or legal proceedings insti-tuted against or by said Company, in the same manner as if the Company were a Corporation or Company established by the laws of the United

A SPECIAL PERMANENT FUND HAS BEEN PLACED AT THE DISPOSAL OF THE AGENT AT PHILADELPHIA, TO ENABLE HIM TO ADJUST AND PROMPTLY PAY ALL SSES, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO LONDON.

LIBERAL TO THE INSURED. The uniform course of the Company has always een a liberal one towards Policy Holders. No just claim has ever been disputed, and prompt payment of losses is a standing rule.
